Community Spirit in Action

The Fayette Charity Classic – Saturday, March 17, 2012.

Fayette Senior Services (FSS) 4th annual March For Meals 5K/1 Mile Run Walk has new look and expanded purpose for 2012. The event has been renamed the Fayette Charity Classic and a certified 10K race has been added. Also, proceeds from the event will now benefit other participating Fayette County charities. The Fayette Charity Classic 10K and 5K are USA Track and Field (USATF) certified and qualifiers for the Peachtree Road Race.

Run | Walk | Support Your Favorite Charity!

Participating non-profit, 501.c.3 charities will receive $20 of each $30 paid registration fee/completed Official Entry Form. To ensure your favorite charity benefits from the event proceeds, you must designate your charity as a recipient (see Official Entry Form). Corporate sponsors can also designate charities beneficiaries (see Sponsor Package for more information).

Event Festivities

The Fayette Charity Classic has something for everyone! It's healthy, it's fun, and you can participate at the level of your choice while doing something good for your favorite local charity. The event also features race-day festivities include parking lot parties, event-day expo, awards, and a lot of community spirit.
